Newest Book Release

Salty The Deconstruction of a Good Christian

Weary of claiming a faith that promised supernatural and transformational power, yet living with fear, anxiety, and doubt, Hollylu was at the ultimate fork in the road: reject her faith or stop thinking so deeply about it. The third option wasn't even on her radar: total commitment to God. Salty: The Deconstruction of a Good Christian is an autobiographical reflection on surrendering oneself in search of authentic discipleship.

Every Day Life

Hollylu is celebrating over three decades of marriage to Michael and has two busy kids, now young adults. Residing in the bustling metropolis of Puyallup, WA, she works full-time at Good Samaritan Multicare Hospital, maintains a private practice, and is a popular teacher and speaker in the Northwest region. She is a huge promoter of early intervention with children and has over twenty-five years of experience leading workshops and training for early educators.

Hollylu is a Bible Study teacher at her home church,, Lighthouse Christian Center. She speaks over 40 times per year and is a frequent keynote speaker at women's retreats and conferences, MOPS/parenting groups, and women's events. Her presentation style is light-hearted, packed with facts, and very interactive.
